1922 ✓ HUTCH - Ep. 2 "Under the Cauldron".
The chapter opens with Hutch and Dariel in their perilous predicament on the railroad tracks. Lennox approaches, and seeing Dariel in danger, rescues her. Hutch, however, is lying on a different track, and Lennox seeing the train approaching, thinks he is about to be killed. With a terrific effort, Hutch saves himself in time, unknown to his enemy. Fay Vallon comes to the aid of Hutch and takes him to the McClelland mansion in her car. Here he finds Lennox and Dariel in an earnest conversation. He demands Lennox' resignation and leaves for a certain wharf to obtain papers that Lennox has kept.

Arriving at the wharf, Hutch is tricked by Lennox' henchmen. Paul, however, overhears one of the men telling of the act and that the papers are in Lennox' safe at the chemical laboratory. Paul immediately finds Hutch and tells him the information, also informing Hutch that Dariel has left for the laboratory with Lennox to attempt to secure the papers. Greatly alarmed, Hutch hurries to the laboratory. Meanwhile, Dariel and Lennox have reached their destination, and Lennox, thinking that Dariel has been won over to his side, turns away. The girl rushes from the office, looking for the papers. She runs down a flight of stairs into the door after her, and sees her throw the papers into a vat of bubbling chemical room. She accidentally and in their attempt to rescue her, and both are placed in peril.
